Closing with a smile...

Puns by Karthik Narayanan, London

A very hungry cow was looking for something to eat. Out of sheer desperation she prayed to God, and lo behold she came across a lush patch of the freshest green grass she had ever seen. With tears welling in her eyes she prayerfully whispered: "It's all God's graze"

Devadatta walked into the Bhajana Samaj. One glance at him and you knew he was puzzled and overwhelmed. He was astounded that people kept singing bhajans at the top of their voices. 10 minutes went by, 15 minutes went by and bhajan after bhajan, and he got impatient.

Devadatta whispered to the person next to him: "Where's the food?" The person responded: "Food? Focus on bhajan, my friend." After 15 minutes of more non-stop bhajans Devadatta again asked: "When is the food?" The person replied: "My friend you are in Bhajana Samaj! Why do you keep asking for food?" Devadatta responded: "Oh! Bhajana Samaj! The Bengali gentleman at the front door, Mr. Chakraborty, greeted me 'Welcome to Bhojana Samaj' and that's how I landed up here!"
