Calling for SHINE teachers

*That our children don't draw their strength from our heritage is not their fault.
That we can help our children be anchored in our heritage is our collective responsibility.*

We are happy to share that we now have 10 teachers across India and overseas who will teach children a life of Sanaatana Dharma through SHINE. Seeing the great response, we decided to extend the date of application to 5th August. Please apply soon if you always wanted to contribute and think that this opportunity will help you achieve your purpose.
